Blackhawk

The 1958
YEARBOOK STAFF
presents

The Blackhawk

to you
the students of

Oxford Academy and Central School

Oxford, New York

Volume IV

Foreword

We of the yearbook staff have tried to explain through pictures, candid shots and written copy, our idea of the joys, sorrows, and memorable moments at Oxford Academy and Central School.

We hope that through the years this yearbook will become a treasure place for your memories.

Alma Mater

Fair Oxford, Pride of all the valley,
 We come with our all to thee
 To mold our lives and build our hopes
 As thou wouldst have them be,
 The lessons thou dost give us here
 Will fit us well for life,
 In later years we'll still love and bless thee
 When in the great world's strife.

Oh, Alma Mater, thy sons and daughters
 Will strive to honor thee,
 As time rolls on our glorious bright banner
 Is noble and pure and free;
 And when we come back in memories' eye
 To scenes that long are past,
 We'll look with joy on the days that we spent
 'Neath the hues of the red and black.

Dedication

To the Parents of the Senior Class, we---the seniors who have been given the honor of selecting the dedicatee---humbly and lovingly dedicate this memoir of the 1957-58 school year in Oxford Academy.

It is with loving gratitude that we pay tribute to the "parents," for without their kindness, care and love, we could not have attained this degree of success.

In Appreciation

Mr. Lynn Seymour

The Oxford Academy staff and student body wish to express their feelings of respect, honor, and appreciation to you, Mr. Seymour, for the many years of your life spent in the interests of the youth in Oxford as either a member or president of the Board of Education since 1935. These years, devoted to problem-solving, represent hours spent "over and above the line of duty."

Last Will and Testament

The class of 1958, being of sound mind and body bequeaths to any other junior classes having parties after their Prom our swimming pool and one-hundred hamburgers.

We also leave the following things: Brian Bartle's brain to science.... Don Bliven's penmanship to anyone who dares use it.... Bob Bliven's nickname of "Tiny" to Kenny Tucker.... Linda Bradford's height to next year's basketball team.... Arlene Brigham's ability to blush to Marian McNitt.... Thelma Burke's athletic association records to next year's treasurer.... Janet Covell's stubbornness to Stuart Johnson.... Mary Lou Cox's height to Bill Jones.... Joyce Cunningham's love for Guilford to Judy Fleming....

Allen Diamond's Bainbridge football jersey to Dennis DeLong.... Burt Drumn's love for churches to anyone who like to paint.... Mary Engler's poop-deck to next year's editor-in-chief.... Paul Estelow's bass drum to Kenny Tucker.... Lois Helmke's ability to live in McDonough and like it to Mary Loughed.... Esther Holdridge's wonderful memories of Oxford Academy to all the underclassmen in hopes that they will have as much fun in high school as she did.... Dick Howe's touchdowns to next year's football team in hopes that they won't need them.... Bill Humphrey's Texas drawl to Barbara Jones.... Joan Ingraham's red Nash to Bill Jones--if he can get in.... Sharon Jones' nickname "grump" to Joanne Reid.... Louise Kelly's problems to any junior girl who thinks she is big enough to cope with them.... Dale Mayhew wills nothing because he needs everything he has.... Sheila McEneny leaves the change in the point system to any band member going to a Cornell Spring Week-End.... Roberta Medovich's bottle of peroxide to Ronnie Beckwith.... Harry Moore's quietness to Donald Walling.... Shirley Mower's love of doing dishes to Betty Mowers.... Linda Mowry's desk in the senior homeroom to anyone crazy enough to leave California.... Claudia Munyan's love of dancing to Betty Mowers.... Doug Preston's black Angus to Donald Bradt.... David Purdy's '57 Mercury to anyone who can get it.... Charles Race's '48 Chevy to Josephine Johnson.... Nancy Race leaves her ability to share a book to Kay F. Marshman.... Leon Redenbeck's dish scraping job in the cafeteria to Paul Cox.... Alice Saxby's ability to reach high 'A' to Kay Marshman.... Jean Sayles' headaches on yearbook staff to next year's treasurer.... Donna Tucker's long hair to Barb Tefft.... Peggy Vadney's love of Texas to Sue Purdy.... Sue Vogelgsang's small feet to Bobbie Jones.... Doris Weaver's eyelashes to Joanne Gyles.... Gladys Whaley's rides on Bus 28 to "Bubbles" Smith.... Tom Whitmore's parking space in the Drive-In to Foxy Souders.

Seniors are ---!

1958 Class History

Our class history began before we entered high school, as we were the first kindergarten class in Oxford Academy. We had a normal grade school life; and before we realized where the time had gone, we had entered the best four years of our school life--high school.

In the fall of 1954 we became freshmen and found out what high school really was like. Our advisors were Miss Bull and Mr. Bacher. We elected John Dutcher, president; Linda Mowry, vice-president; Louise Kelly, secretary; and Gladys Whaley, treasurer.

Our project of the year was a Sadie Hawkins dance which was very successful.

In our sophomore year we found out that high school was hard work, but Miss Bull and Mr. Souders, our new advisor, kept their watchful eyes on us. Again we elected John Dutcher, president; Linda Mowry, vice-president; Esther Holdridge, secretary; and Thelma Burke, treasurer.

We sold subscriptions for the Oxford Review Times and tickets for the All Star Review. Both were financially successful.

We began our junior year under Miss Bull and Mr. Souders by electing John Dutcher, president; Linda Mowry, vice-president; Donna Tucker, secretary; and Gladys Whaley, treasurer.

In September, juniors were seen knocking at doors selling magazine subscriptions. We waited quite impatiently for our class rings which finally arrived in early April. Work on "Stardust", the theme for our Junior Prom, had kept us quite busy all spring. It was one of the most successful proms in many years. A junior, Nancy Race and her escort, Alan Stork, were selected queen and king.

In September of 1957 we were at last all together in the big study hall under the guidance of Miss Bull and Mr. Vogelgsang. Linda Mowry was elected president; Nancy Race, vice-president; Donna Tucker, secretary; and Arlene Brigham, treasurer.

Because of a flu epidemic, school was closed for two weeks in October. This made it necessary to postpone our senior play, "Onions in the Stew" from November 15 to April 18. It was a great success and received good reviews. We selected "Hope for the best, prepare for the worst" as our class motto. The class colors were blue and white; our flower was the red rose. In the spring we received the edition of the BLACKHAWK in which were our pictures as seniors.

This year we have welcomed to our class two new members, Linda Bradford and William Humphrey.

The Navy -- in need

Lunch at last

Not pros, but trying

Judy and Jimmy?

Good morning

Left, right, left

Using Trig.?

New York, the first state ---

ning to dance?

Tea time

Study hall?

1 down, 17 to go

Elvis?

Lime light thief

Camera shy

Big business

One at a time, Jim
